"Instructor stuffed full of practical, immediately useable ideas"

"I was not paid to come. Well worth my two days pay"

"Thank you for opening my eyes. I will always treasure this workshop"

Your staff name their students' most persistent and serious behavioral, social and emotional problems, and the Breakthrough Strategies to Teach and Counsel Troubled Youth Workshop delivers hundreds of innovative, more effective, use-now solutions.

The popular, solution-packed Breakthrough Strategies Workshop gives your team 200 new, problem-stopping strategies for issues like work refusal, poor motivation, conflict, bullying, underperforming, absenteeism, apathy, defiance, delinquency, Asperger's, ADHD, violence, depression, withdrawal, ADD and more.

The Breakthrough Strategies Workshop has been held at schools, agencies, conferences, universities and institutes throughout North America including Portland OR Schools, California Association of Counseling and Development, Cincinnati Public Schools, Temple University, South Dakota Special Education Conference, Monterey Co. CA Mental Health, Orange Co. FL Schools, Oregon Alternative Education Conference, Indiana Youth Institute, Vermont Foster Parent Association, Louisville KY Schools, plus hundreds of other sites throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Yes, you can turnaround even the most unmotivated, misbehaved, uncooperative, troubled and failing students. Veteran author/trainer Ruth Herman Wells M.S. will show you how. Her problem-stopping methods are specifically designed to work when conventional approaches fail. Make the one or two day investment that delivers years-long results. Learn more at www.youthchg.com.

We wrote the book on difficult students. And we teach the class.
