INTRODUCTION

For 25 years, Youth Change Workshops has been the nation's leader providing professional training that emphasizes the need for all high school teachers to become proficient in managing students' behavioral, social and emotional concerns. Typically, 80% of teacher college training focuses on content, and a mere 20% addresses the behavioral, social and emotional problems that dominate many classrooms.

Many high school teachers lose a whopping 22 minutes of instruction time each hour to address classroom management problems. All that college training on content is wasted when classroom management takes center stage, and academic instruction takes a back seat.

Even newly minted high school teachers often feel that their training has prepared them to work with Beaver Cleaver in the 1950s, yet they humorously report seeing Beavis and Butthead showing up in their classrooms each day. Novice and veteran teachers often report that they feel unprepared to effectively prevent or manage the serious, contemporary class management concerns that can make instruction difficult, even impossible. Both novice and veteran teachers report feeling they lack updated, practical, immediately usable methods to prevent and manage high school classroom management concerns. Teachers may be experts at teaching academic content, but unable to effectively manage the escalating bad behavior, family problems, bad attitudes, negativity, crises, work refusal, tardiness, substance abuse, bullying, gangs, violence, disrespect, non-compliance, apathy, and defiance that they encounter every day in the classroom.

Youth Change's Breakthrough Strategies to Teach Troubled and Problem Students offers novice and veteran high school teachers the practical, real-world classroom management training they didn't receive in college. For two decades this course has shown teachers how to prevent or stop the classroom management problems, plus thousands of teachers have learned how to better identify and manage students' social and emotional problems that impede learning. Your on-site workshop will be customized to meet the needs of teachers, however this workshop will also be beneficial for special educators, alternative educators, teaching assistants, school counselors, administrators, support staff, and anyone who teaches, manages or works with difficult and troubled children and youth.

Breakthrough Strategies Workshop

sessions have been held nearly every state in the U.S. and in countless high, middle and elementary schools. Many school districts, national and regional conferences, and agencies have sponsored our on-site training workshops. Past sponsors of our on-site workshops include: Lancaster (CA) School District, The Children's Center (CT), the Rochester (NY) Mental Health Association, La Junta (CO) High School, Roosevelt Children's Academy (NY), and The New School (CT). For two decades, this course has also offered college graduate credit and clock hours.

While Youth Change's Breakthrough Strategies Workshop is theoretically sound, this course does not offer more theory as many teachers have strong theoretical backgrounds. Instead, this seminar is primarily practical and results-oriented. The methods (an example is shown at right) offered in this course were developed "in the trenches" with students like yours, and the results of these efforts were researched and documented in a variety of ways, including publication in the journal of the Center for Social Policy, and in other professional and national venues.

We offer a one and a half day option that totals 10 hours and provides 200 strategies. The 6 hour, 1 day version of this seminar provides approximately 100 strategies for whatever specific social, emotional, and school behavior problems your staff identify. That makes the Breakthrough Strategies Workshop quite unique because your course participants will actually be able to set the agenda upon arrival. Once they name the problem areas that they face in their high school classrooms, this workshop delivers innovative, attention-grabbing, more effective methods to prevent or manage those exact concerns. This workshop will precisely target your staff's most important concerns, then deliver ready-to-use, real-world solutions they can use the very next day. In addition, this workshop will put your high school teachers "inside" their students' "skin." Teachers will gain a deeper understanding of what makes troubled and problem students "tick," then they will learn targeted methods to precisely address those concerns. This reduces the use of "one-size-fits-all" interventions that fit no one.

Youth Change warranties your participants, meaning that we maintain a toll-free help line, huge resource website with a special area for workshop past participants. Plus, we man a toll-free online Live Expert Help line and a Live Expert Help web page, all designed to be ready to help with any new classroom management concerns that develop once your course concludes. This is a never-ending warranty. We stand behind our workshop, and we stand behind your staff. After our workshop, your high school teachers won't be alone in that classroom anymore. Youth Change Workshops will be right there with them.

BREAKTHROUGH STRATEGIES to TEACH TROUBLED & PROBLEM STUDENTS WORKSHOP

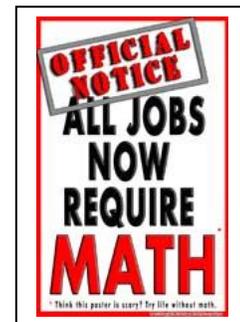

Course Overview

Your high school teachers will bring their most serious student problems with them to the Breakthrough Strategies to Teach Troubled and Problem Youth Workshop, and they will receive hundreds of practical, problem-stopping, ready-to-use interventions on the spot. This professional development inservice delivers the best answers for your worst student problems, and shows your teachers and other staff exactly how to create a positive, safe, productive learning environment-- even for classrooms that have had significant or chronic classroom management problems.

The Breakthrough Strategies to Teach Troubled and Problem Students Workshop one day or day and a half sessions delivers approximately 100-200 ready-to-use, more effective strategies for any type of high school student and any type of problem. Your participants will name the problems at the start of the course, then systematically learn solutions. Your high school teachers and other staff will learn the newest, most effective methods that exist. An example worksheet strategy is shown at right-- the small print at the bottom of the worksheet says "Think this paper is scary? Try life without math."

These strategies have been designed to turnaround defiant, unmotivated, traumatized, out-of-control, special needs, difficult, truant, violent, conduct disordered, oppositional, emotionally disturbed, depressed, non-compliant, learning disabled, and withdrawn high school students. A presentation to your high school staff could target just your high school grades, but this course can also be tailored to cover all the grades served by the district. This workshop offers updated, innovative solutions that are more effective than conventional approaches.

Participants will learn how to identify different types of student social, emotional, and school behavior problems, and to match the intervention to the specific problem, allowing the teacher to more precisely and quickly target and solve the concerns they encounter. This increased precision and speed will give teachers back many hours of instruction time that otherwise would have been lost. Your staff will become expert managing all the varied social and emotional problems that today's secondary students present on a regular basis.

Course Outline

One day and day and a half sessions are offered. A sample schedule for one day is below.

See our flyer to view a sample two day schedule

<https://www.youthchg.com/flyf06all4pages.pdf>. A day and a half session would increase the strategies learned to 200 from 100, and increase the contact time from 6 hours to 10 hours.

For 10 hour courses, we can arrange affordable college grad credit and free clock hours.

ONE DAY

6 hours, 1 session, approximately 100 Coping, School, and Social Skills interventions.

Participants will document the results achieved by participating in this course by taking a workshop pre- and post-test.

Session 1

6 hours

- Course Introduction and Pre-Test (.25 hour)

- How to Teach Students to Have Appropriate Personal Space and Distance
- Methods to Teach Appropriate Interactions with Authority Figures

- RESULTS: Participants will learn approximately 40 specific intervention strategies for every type of student social problem named by course attendees. Participants will learn exactly how to manage "unmanageable" students in their classroom. Participants will overcome any barriers they feel exist that keep them from effectively working with unmanageable students who are aggressive, disrespectful, non-compliant, verbally aggressive, or hostile. Your staff will learn more effective methods for all types of social skill problems that are evidenced in school. Interventions will be drawn from approaches shown to be effective with children and adolescents, and these methods will include basic mental health techniques long documented as the preferred methodology. Participants will become more confident about managing any students that they have struggled to manage in the past. Participants will learn how to feel more confident managing even extremely hard-to-control youngsters. Class participants will learn essential safety information that could help prevent a serious incident or shooting at school. Methods for gangs, bullies, violent youth, and angry students will also be offered.

- Summary and Close (.25 hour)
 - RESULTS: Workshop participants will be able to demonstrate improvement by successfully completing the course post-test. The participants will be inspired and recommitted to their jobs. Participants will have learned 100 improved interventions. Participants will report having better, more effective methods for their current students, along with reduced stress, and increased confidence that they can increase class time devoted to instruction while decreasing time devoted to students' behavioral, social, and emotional problems.

Course Results

For over two decades, Youth Change Workshops has provided workshops that offer methods to reduce violence, withdrawal, family problems, depression, ADD, ADHD, school failure, work refusal and apathy. Participants crisscross the U.S., sit for hours in Los Angeles traffic, fly in from Japan and Australia, crash full sessions, and brave winter snow storms to attend this class-- and actually still say "It was worth the trip!" Don't take our word for our results. Listen to our participants. Full, signed letters are available for your review. Here are some typical reactions to Youth Change's workshops:

"Four years ago I took a group of teachers to your workshop. It changed my life. I gained a new understanding of the students I work with and now share your strategies as part of my new teacher training each year. Your workshop ranks as my number one ever in all my years of education." Kristie McCuston, Vice Principal, Garland, TX

"Can't wait to share your ideas with our staff. I loved the way you tailored the interventions to the type of student. It was refreshing to finally attend a workshop where the presenter actually presented and didn't fill the workshop with 'touchy feely' activities with little relevance." Sally McAfee, Coordinator of Alternative Education, Corvallis, OR

"I attended a workshop several years ago...5, 6 or 7 years...I don't quite remember. But I remember the impact that workshop made on me like it was yesterday. I remember you handing out little strips of paper, giving each workshop participant about 15 pieces of paper, with a wide range of problems young people face every day. Some were simply life situations, grandmother's death, argument with best friend. But some were so horrific...being molested, being hungry with no food in the future, being beaten. I realized that day that I never know what a student may be facing every day. So thank you again for that lesson that I have kept with me every day in working with my students." Cathy Harper, Mother Lode Job Training, Sonora, CA.

"Your workshop presentation played a significant role in better equipping staff for the challenges and privilege of working with these children." Jinna Risdal, Washington Primary Intervention Conference

"Incredibly useful. Inspiring." Caryn Curry, Counselor, Lincoln School, E. Chicago, IN

"Absolutely phenomenal! A Great deal of useful information." Jami Giamusso, Washington Learning Disability Association

"Just a fabulous, life changing two days."

Bernadette Ostrozovich, Outreach Instructor, Indianapolis, IN

"Most interesting, useful workshop I've ever been to."

Phyllis Eccles, Special Ed Teacher, Hillsboro Elementary School, Hillsboro, TX

"So many good ideas, I couldn't write fast enough."

Diana Borg, Teacher, O'Fallon, MO

About the Instructor

Veteran instructor, Ruth Herman Wells, M.S. is the author of dozens of books, videos and articles on helping students to succeed in school and life. She is the director of Youth Change Workshops, and has written four popular books for Pro Ed Publishers, one of the world's largest publishers of resources for challenged and special needs students. She writes a regular column for SEEN Magazine, and has appeared in the Child Welfare Report, The Corrections Compendium, and countless other publications. Ruth has trained staff in every imaginable setting from elementary schools to high schools, from Job Corps to mental health hospitals, from correctional programs to adult schools, from Pre-K programs to colleges. Ruth has trained staff from the Florida Keys to the Arctic Circle. People routinely travel from as far away as Australia, Japan and the United Kingdom to learn from Ruth how to better reach and teach their students. Ruth delivers concrete, practical, cutting-edge learning interventions everywhere she goes, and she can deliver immediate, measurable results for your participants too.

Ruth has managed many types of mental health settings including independent living programs and day treatment. Her mental health insight will be the perfect match for your staff's expertise on content. Ruth's lively, hard-to-resist presentation style will encourage your staff to speak out and get involved in the presentation. Your conference participants will name the problem areas they see in their classes, then Ruth will deliver some of the most innovative, effective methods that exist. Ruth's methods were honed with children and youth in classrooms, special ed, locked justice settings, and mental health agencies. Ruth will be prepared to provide active learning interventions for any type of student and any type of problem. Ruth specializes in solutions for classroom management problems, poor motivation, negative attitudes, discouragement, procrastination, poor study skills, inadequate organizational skills, difficulty communicating, social skill concerns, anxiety, overwhelm, crisis, apathy, lateness, and absenteeism. Ruth has methods especially designed to work well with students from diverse backgrounds, students who have difficulty learning English, and students who face multiple barriers to academic success.

The methods Ruth features in her workshops were created in schools and treatment centers with students just like yours. The results of those efforts have been documented and published in many venues. One program that Ruth directed showed a remarkable graduation rate of 90% for dropouts, as well as a 10% recidivism rate for juvenile offenders. That program also documented reductions in tardiness and absenteeism. One Washington State school district using these methods noted reductions in referrals to detention and suspension, and that district won the state education association's Most Improved School District award after incorporating these approaches. Ruth's work draws heavily on well-researched mental health, education, and psychology studies including Stanton Samenow's work on conduct disorders and oppositional-defiant children. Ruth's interventions are designed to work when conventional methods fail, and were created to help you enhance your results with your students who are struggling.
