I just wanted to say how much I enjoyed and learned in the seminar "Bully and Social Aggression" given by Ruth Wells. Ironically as I was sitting in the seminar a threat of violence was written on the wall of the girls' bathroom at the high school. The threat is supposed to be carried out today at 2 pm.

I know from the previous seminar I attended given by Ruth Wells, "Social Maladjustment," that I would have been able to identify suspect students in my program fairly easily because I see them every day and I take note of the smallest in behavior changes. I have been given a set of tools, interventions, and strategies that help me in indentifying students with issues I cannot help solve on my own. The tools have helped to realize when I can make a difference on my own and when I need to ask for help.

I want to thank Ruth Wells and Youth Change for giving me those tools.
